

Unit 18

Esercizi di recupero

A. Complete the following summary about travelling and working abroad.

Many students who finish high school decide to .....; someone prefers a short stay, others decide to work in another country and move there permanently. The most popular choices for temporary experiences include: ..... to improve your skills in ..... and sometimes to obtain a .....; a job as ..... living with a family and working as .....; ..... at University, sometimes with ..... such as Erasmus and finally participating in ..... as .....

Working abroad is another option and in this case you should consider elements such as ....., ....., .....

The easiest choice is to look for a job in ....., which grants a number of rights; other advantages include a similar ....., a ..... and ..... . Otherwise you can look for a job in English-speaking countries such as ..... or ..... . Both countries require .....

B. Fill in the table giving your personal opinion.

		Like/Don't like	Reasons
Language course	school only	.....	.....
	certification	.....	.....
	school + job	.....	.....
Au-pair	baby-sitter only	.....	.....
	job+language course	.....	.....
University	take a degree abroad	.....	.....
	one term abroad	.....	.....
Volunteer		.....	.....
Working in Europe	Mediterranean country	.....	.....
	Northern Europe	.....	.....
Working in USA		.....	.....
Working in Australia		.....	.....

C. Now use the table to prepare a short speech about your preferences.

Unit 19

Esercizi di recupero

A. Translate the following words.

1. Workforce .....
2. Duties .....
3. Uneven geographical distribution .....
4. Overseas dentists .....
5. Figures .....
6. Training .....
7. Chairside assistant .....

B. Use the EU totals of the tables on p. 194 and p. 199 to write an overall description of the dental workforce in Europe.

Unit 20

Esercizi di recupero

A. Replace the underlined expression with a phrasal verb.

1. I lost my keys yesterday; while I was looking for them, I unexpectedly found an old ring belonging to my grandmother. ....
2. The meeting voted for my proposal and refused it. ....
3. Please help me search my wallet. ....
4. The dentist postponed my appointment. ....
5. It was a terrible situation but Pat found a good solution. ....
6. Please submit your tests at 10 o'clock. ....

B. Complete the following summary about job searching.

When you are looking for a job, the first thing to do is to look for .....; once you have selected the most interesting, identify elements such as the name of ....., the ....., the ..... and .....

Then write a ..... to convince the potential employer ....., attaching a copy of .....

You can also look for a vacant position making online researches or participating in .....

The employer will select you for an ..... if your CV looks interesting. There are different ....., including the official ..... and all of them include the following elements: personal ....., working ....., and ..... (computer knowledge and foreign .....).

Finally there is the .....: you will be asked to comment ..... and to answer some personal questions. Elements such as ....., the way you ..... and what you ..... will also influence the employer.